Notes for Absolom Bostick I:

"Absolom Bostick was a versatile man and a great advocate for independence, giving both his time and fortune to rid the South of the British. He was a member of the staff of Colonel Joseph Winston during the Revolutionary War, and was assigned the task of drilling soldiers, for he was skilled in military tactics. He was a well-educated man, and was a member of the Convention that met in Hillsboro in 1788. Also a member of the Fayetteville Convention, in 1789. He served as a magistrate, sheriff and coroner and was elected many times to the General Assembly at Raleigh, where he served in both houses.

"Colonel Bostick's home, Shoebuckle Plantation, is one of the largest and most historic plantations on the Dan River. The plantation was in Surry County and located near Pine Hall in the bend of the Dan River. At this noted estate, which is near Pine Hall, Colonel Bostick was wont to entertain in a lavish manner since, by blood or marriage, he was connected with all the important families along the Dan. The Bosticks owned thousands of acres of land and many slaves. They were wealthy and influential planters, and men of prominence. Colonel Bostick is buried on this plantation." (Source: Stokes County, North Carolina Heritage, 1981)

In the Record of the Moravians, Vol. 5 (Diary of Bishop Spagenburg) is the following concerning Absolom Bostick I: "Mr. Martin and Bostick are put up for house of commons; they are both able men and not opposed to the brethren. It is our duty to vote for men who are capable and who will be good for the country." [page 2370 Salem Board Minutes, 1792] On page 2269 (August 22, 1789) it told of Joseph Winston and Absolom Bostick going to the convention from Surry County, North Carolina.

He served as a captain in the Revolutionary War. [Early Families of the North Carolina Counties of Rockingham and Stokes with Revolutionary War Service, Vol II (Madison County, North Carolina, DAR).] [Heitman, Francis B., Historical Register of Officers of the Continental Army during the War of the Revolution (April 1775-December 1783, Washington D. C; 1914.)]

Will of John Bostick, Sr. reads as follows: "I, John Bostick, Sr., of the county of Williamson and State of Tennessee, do hereby ordain, publish and declare this my last will and testament with manner, words and figures following, to wit, Item first: to my daughter Bethenia Patton, I give fourteen hundred dollars, to be paid to her by my executor, by paying and delivering up to said Bethenia her notes I hold against said Bethenia, owing me, one note for two hundred and twenty-five dollars dated the 18th of May, 1842, the other note for one hundred fifty dollars dated the 12th of July 1842. and the balance of said legacy of fourteen hundred dollars is to be paid either in money or in cash notes on demand due me.

Item second: To my daughter, Elizabeth Bell, I give fourteen hundred dollars, to be paid over to her by my executor, by paying and delivering up to said Elizabeth two notes I hold against Job Bell owing me. One of said notes is for four hundred seventy-one 67/100 dollars dated the 29th of March, 1842, and the other note is for one hundred dollars dated the 26th of May, 1841, and the balance of said legacy of fourteen hundred dollars is to be paid to her either in money or in cash notes on demand due me.

Item third: To my daughter, Jane Wilson, I give fourteen hundred dollars, to be paid over to her by my executor, by paying and delivering up to said Jane, one note I hold against Jacon C. Wilson, owing me for five and twenty-eight 18/100 dollars, dated 30th of December, 1839 and the balance of said legacy to be paid to her either in money or cash notes on demand due me.

Item fourth: To my daughter Christiana Coltart, I give fourteen hundred dollars to be paid her by my executor, by paying and delivering up to her two notes I hold against John Coltart, due me, one of said notes is for three hundred dollars, dated 10th of December 1841 and the other of said notes is for one hundred and sixty-one 43/100 dollars dated 22nd of October 1840, and the balance of said legacy to be paid to her either in money or cash notes on demand due me.

Item fifth: To my granddaughter, Mary C. Rudder (a child of my daughter, Mary Rudder, deceased) I give fourteen hundred dollars to be paid her by my executor, either in money or cash notes on demand due me.

Item sixth: To my two grandsons John H. Bostick and James A. Bostick (children of Hampton Bostick, deceased) I give two hundred dollars each, to be paid over to them by my executors either in money or cash notes on demand. I also give to said two grandsons all the expenses I have ___? ___ in raising them from small children and do hereby release them of any and every charge that might have been made by me against them.

Item seventh: To my son Absalom I give my desk and bookcase and all my wearing apparel.

Item eighth: It is my will and desire, and I wish it distinctly understood that all the foregoing legacies to my daughters, granddaughter and grandsons and son Absalom are to be paid over and delivered up to them by my executors within three months after my death or at least within three months after my will shall have been proven & placed upon record. The funds out of which the foregoing legacies are to be paid, in addition to the notes enumerated are to be derived from the notes I now hold and owing me by my sons Absalom Bostick, Hardin P. Bostick & James A. Bostick & my executors can pay said legacies either in said notes owing me by my sons or in money.

Item ninth: It is my will that my two Negroes named Lewis & Celia be kept on my McClelland tract of land where they are at present residing under the care and management of my executors & they be permitted to cultivate so much of said land & to have the use of the gross lots belonging to said tract as may be necessary for their support. & also at my death to give them one years provisions lend them one work horse. One cow & calf. One sow & pigs & all the plantation utensils belonging to said McClelland tract during their lifetime.

Item tenth: It is my will and desire that the balance of the McClelland tract shall be rented out, and the profits arising therefrom be equally divided between my three sons Absalom, John & Hardin P. Bostick.

Item eleventh: It is my will and desire that if my slaves Lewis & Celia above mentioned should become infirm & unable to support themselves by labor, that so much of the money arising from the rent of the McClelland as may be necessary be applied & appropriated to the support of my said two slaves, above named.

Item twelfth: It is my will & desire that after the death of my two slaves Lewis & Celia that the McClelland tract of land be divided between my three sons Absalom Bostick, John Bostick, and Hardin P. Bostick, either by sale or otherwise as they may think proper. The object of this legacy being to make their portion in line therefore given to them equal in value to the land I gave to my son James A. Bostick & my son James is to have no part of said McClelland tract of land.

Item thirteenth: All the balance of my estate, both real and personal and of every description whatever, not herein before given, devised and disposed of, I give to my four sons Absalom Bostick, John Bostick, Hardin P. Bostick and James A. Bostick to be equally divided between them, after first paying all my just debts and funeral expenses.

Item Fourteenth. It is my wish and desire to be interred by the side of my wife and a similar marble slab and wall to be constructed around my grave to those now around her grave, and a suitable inscription to be cut in the slab.

Item Fifteenth: I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my two sons Absalom Bostick and John Bostick as executors of this my last will and testament. I do not require that they should give security on taking upon themselves the duty and responsibility of executing my will, unless events subsequent to my death and after they have proved the will, should make it necessary. If one of the executors should die or refuse to act, then the other executor is hereby fully authorized to act alone.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, this 28th day of August 1844. Signed by: John Bostick; Witnesses: E. L. Crocker, John S. Claybrooke, Jonathan Bostick.

In the codicil he stipulated that the notes mentioned in his will written 28 August 1844 would cease to draw interest after 10 September 1845 and that the daughters and their husbands would not be required to pay interest on the note from that date. He also added his son Hardin P. Bostick as an executor to his will along with the two sons mentioned in the will. Signed 20 September 1845.

Witnesses: E. L. Crocker and John S. Claybrooke.

More About Sophie Emily Bostick:

Census: 29 Aug 1850 in Christian County, Kentucky; District 1⁴²

Notes for Sophie Emily Bostick:

Sophie Emily Bostick Sivley's obituary states that she and Eli had four daughters and one son, all still living at her death in 1891.

Generation 6 (con't)

Even though the marriage record says that Emily was married in July 1850, she is listed on the August 1850 Christian County, KY Census Records with her parents as Emily Bostick, age 22, born in NC.

Notes for Eli Hiram Sivley:

According to the Funeral Card for Eli Hiram Sivley, figuring it by age in years-months-days, his birthday was 30 May 1814.

Eli Hiram Sivley is listed on the 1850 Christian County, Kentucky Census with his mother Elizabeth, children George S. Sivley and Hiram H. Sivley, and Mary G. Sivley, age 21, born in Kentucky. The census was taken in October 1850, but no wife is listed for Eli Hiram Sivley on that census unless Sophie's name is given incorrectly.

Eli Hiram Sivley and Sophie Emily Bostick had the following children:

- i. MANOAH⁷ SIVLEY was born about 1852 in Kentucky.
- ii. JOSEPHINE LITTLEBERRY SIVLEY was born on 05 Aug 1853 in Kentucky^{105, 121-122}. She died on 05 Jan 1909 in Hanford, Kings County, California¹²¹. She married Joshua Boyd, son of George Boyd and Eliza Jane Pierce, on 11 Jul 1894 in Christian County, Kentucky (home of E. H. Sivley's¹²³). He was born on 09 Nov 1850 in Illinois^{122, 124-125}. He died on 26 Mar 1908 in Nebraska¹²².

Residence: 05 Jan 1909 in Hanford, Kings County, California; corner of Ivy and Irwin Streets¹²¹

Burial: 07 Jan 1909 in Elm Creek, Buffalo County, Nebraska; Elm Creek Cemetery¹²¹⁻¹²²

Notes for Josephine Littleberry Sivley:

Informant on the death certificate for Josephine Boyd was R. H. Gresham, Laton, Fresno County, California. Her body was shipped from California to Nebraska to be buried. [Death Certificate, California #213-559, Kings County, Josephine L. Boyd.]

The marriage information on the 1900 Buffalo County, Nebraska Census is very confusing. There is a marriage record for Joshua and Josephine in Christian County, Kentucky in 1894 and none of the children were her children, even though the 1900 census record seems to indicate that the children were born to her and they were married about 1875.

More About Joshua Boyd:

Notes for Arthur Hugh Gregory I:

Church assignments: Tompkinsville, Kentucky (1916-1917), Marion Circuit (1918), Clay Street, Henderson (1919-1922) Trenton-Guthrie (1923-1925), Hopkinsville Circuit (1926), Columbia District (1927-1929), Campbellsville (1930-1937), Elizabethtown (1937-1939), Scottsville (1940-1942), Oakdale in Louisville (1943 - time book was published) [Century of Progress; Louisville Conference Methodist Church (Hopkinsville, Christian County, Kentucky, Historical Society for the Centennial Session of the Louisville Annual Conference of the Methodist Church, 19 September 1946), Library of Carolyn Crabtree, p.147.] He also served as assistant pastor at St. Paul, Louisville, Kentucky.

When Arthur Hugh Gregory and his family returned to the United States from India they land in St. John, New Brunswick, Canada on 25 April 1913 from Liverpool, England. They sailed on the Empress of Ireland. The family consisted of: Arthur Gregory, native of Kentucky; Mrs. Pearl Gregory, native of Tennessee, and three children, all born in India: Arthur Gregory, Jr., Edward Gregory and Roy C. Gregory.

Services for A. H. Gregory were held at St. Andrew Methodist Church, Campbellsville, Kentucky on 25 April 1963 at 10:00a.m. Rev. Joe Humble officiated at the service with Mr. George Weeks at the organ. Don Crabtree and the church choir sang two songs: "Beyond the Sunset" and "How Great Thou Art." Pallbearers were: Jimmie Elmore, Don Crabtree, Greg Crabtree, Billie Gregory, Hugh Gregory, and Gerald Burnett.

Funeral services for the Rev. A. H. Gregory, 80 years of age, will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday morning from the St. Andrew Methodist Church with the Rev. Joe Humble in charge. Burial will be in Brookside. Rev. Gregory died at the Rosary Hospital at 11:10 p.m. Tuesday, April 23, a few hours after entry, due to a heart condition. Rev. Gregory was a native Kentuckian, being born in South Christian County, Jan. 23, 1883. He was the son of Hiram Gregory and Mrs. Kate Gregory. Rev. Gregory was married to Miss Pearl Thompson in 1907, while both were serving as missionaries in India. Mrs. Gregory died suddenly Thursday, February 7 this year at Rosary Hospital after a heart attack. The Rev. Gregory was pastor in Campbellsville from 1930 to 1937. After various pastorates which included the Oakdale Methodist Church, Louisville, and the St. Paul Methodist Church, Louisville, Ky., which he served as associate pastor and from which he retired. His greatest accomplishments came after retirement. He retired to go to work in 1956. He was asked to supply for the Campbellsville Circuit and this resulted in a remodeling job at Spurlington Church, a new and modern church at both Soule Chapel and Miller's Chapel Churches in the county. This was from 1956 to 1959 and again he came out of retirement to lead the cause in a tent, before the building program for the St. Andrew Methodist Church in South Campbellsville. Surviving children are Mrs. Frances Shepherd and Mrs. Catherine Crabtree, both of Campbellsville; A. H. Gregory, Jr., Elizabethtown, Ky.; Roy Gregory, Lancaster, Ky.; and E. T. Gregory, of Middlesboro, Ky. He also leaves thirteen grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. The pallbearers will be Jimmie Elmore, Don Crabtree, Greg Crabtree, Billy Gregory, Hugh Gregory, and Gerald Burnett. [The News-Journal, Campbellsville, Kentucky, April 25, 1963]

In the Gregory Family Bible is written the following: Arthur Hugh Gregory, Sr. and Pearl Thompson were married July 10, 1907 at Igatpuri India by Rev. Clyde Fisher of M. E. Church in the presence of a large congregation of Indian Christians and orphans and Mr. and Mrs. Codding, Mrs. Fisher, wife of the Rev. Clyde Fisher, Miss Carpass ?, Miss Leonard (now Mrs. Dr. Mettrrett). and Mrs Grubert, ever present friend of the mission who served a wedding cake with hot ? to the missionaries after the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Gregory accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Codding went to Dhulia, Kandesh to live.

Arthur Hugh Gregory filled out a Draft Registration Card on 11 September 1918 in Christian County, Kentucky. He stated that he was born on 23 January 1883 and gave Mrs. Pearl Thompson Gregory as his nearest relative. They were living at Rt. 3, Hopkinsville, Kentucky and he gave his occupation as a foreign missionary. He had red hair and brown eyes. [WWI Draft Registration Card, Serial #3327, Order #598]

Burial: 10 Feb 1963 in Campbellsville, Taylor County, Kentucky; Brookside Cemetery^{158, 181}

Notes for Vivian Pearl Thompson:

According to the 1918 passport application, Pearl gave her permanent address as Nashville, Tennessee. She planned to accompany her husband to engage in missionary work and would leave from San Francisco on the Princess Juliana about 20 April 1918. The family was never able to go back to India because of World War 1. Arthur Hugh Gregory became a Methodist pastor and served for 46 years in Kentucky.

On the 1900 Davidson County, Tennessee Census Pearl's birth year is given as 1882. [

The funeral services for Pearl T. Gregory were held at St. Andrew Methodist Church, Campbellsville, Kentucky, on 10 February 1963 at 2p.m. Rev. Joe Humble conducted the service with Mr. George Weeks at the organ. Donald Keith Crabtree sang two songs: "Beyond the Sunset" and "How Great Thou Art." Pallbearers were: Don Crabtree, Greg Crabtree, Billie Gregory, Hugh Gregory, Jimmie Elmore, and Dencie Spowles.

Funeral services for Mrs. Pearl T. Gregory, 81 years of age, were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the St. Andrew Methodist Church in South Campbellsville, with the Rev. Joe Humble in charge. Burial was in Brookside Cemetery, with the Parrott & Ramsey Funeral Home in charge. Mrs. Gregory died at the Rosary Hospital unexpectedly Thursday night, Feb. 7 a few minutes after being admitted for treatment for a heart attack. Mrs. Gregory was the beloved companion and helper of the Rev. A. H. Gregory, a patient at the hospital now in his 80th year, and her history of work and devotion is much that of his, as she was always connected with him in a long and constructive church life that few couples can or ever have attained. Mrs. Gregory was a retiring, motherly type to her family and to all visitors in the home. Hers was a life of service and she was duly loved in all of the ministerial charges and workings that Rev. Gregory served and

Notes for Edward Lee Crabtree:

While I was talking to Annie Sinclair Crabtree she told me the story that Edward Lee was born just before the 1910 census taker came to the house. The family had not given Edward a name yet, so the census taker gave him a name Leonard B. Crabtree just for the record. The couple gave him the name Edward Lee afterwards. [Carolyn Crabtree]

Edward L. Crabtree, 70, 330 High Street, longtime Main Street businessman, part-time farmer and civic leader, died Wednesday at 11:25 p.m. at Taylor County Hospital. Remembered by his friends as hard working, kind and considerate, Crabtree leaves behind many years of service to his work - 42 years at Firestone - and to civic and church groups. "He's one of the most likable men you'd ever want to meet," offered one of his fellow downtown merchants. He was a member of the board of directors of First Federal for 34 years and was serving as chairman of the board at the time of his death. He was a member of Rotary for 31 years and will be remembered for his many years as Scoutmaster of Troop 138 at the First United Methodist Church. He was also a member of the administrative board of the Methodist Church. As a Rotarian, Crabtree was recipient of one of the most cherished Rotary honors - that of a Paul Harris Sustaining Member. His local club donated $1,000 in his name to the Rotary Foundation. He was recently raised to the 50 percent level on the Paul Harris Fellowship. The fellowship is expected to be brought to the 100 percent level in the next few months. Along with the Rotary, Crabtree was one of the rescue squad's most ardent supporters. He was helpful in gaining community support for the "Jaws of Life." "He was a tremendous supporter of the rescue squad from the very beginning," commented squad commander Charlie Shaw. "He donated much of his time and money." He was the son of the late Wilbur R. and Annie Sinclair Crabtree and was born in Taylor County on April 10, 1910. He is survived by his wife, Catherine Gregory Crabtree; two sons, Donald K., Campbellsville, and Greg, Versailles; two sisters, Margaret Pruet, Campbellsville, Dixie Albright, Lake Park, Fla.; one brother, Robert Crabtree, Lexington; 10 grandchildren, 3 great-grandchildren, several nieces and nephews. Funeral service was Friday at 2 p.m. Dr. Charles Music and the Rev. Joe Humble officiating. Burial was in Brookside Cemetery. Honorary pallbearers were members of the Campbellsville Rotary Club, the Men's Bible Class of the First United Methodist Church, and the board of directors of First Federal Savings & Loan Association. Pallbearers were Phil Allan Bertram, Dale Miller, Jack Wright, Jimmy Whitlock, Richard Sublett and Doug Allen. [Central Kentucky News-Journal, January 19, 1981]
